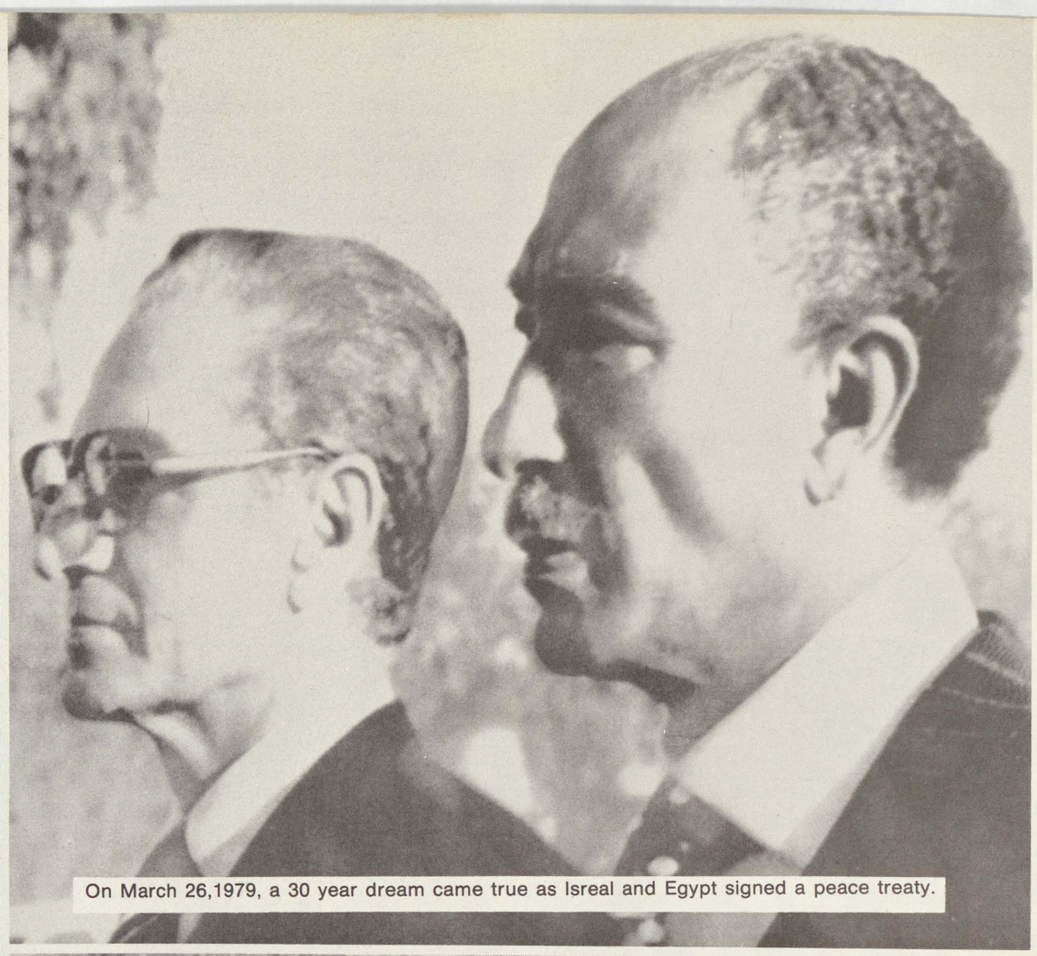
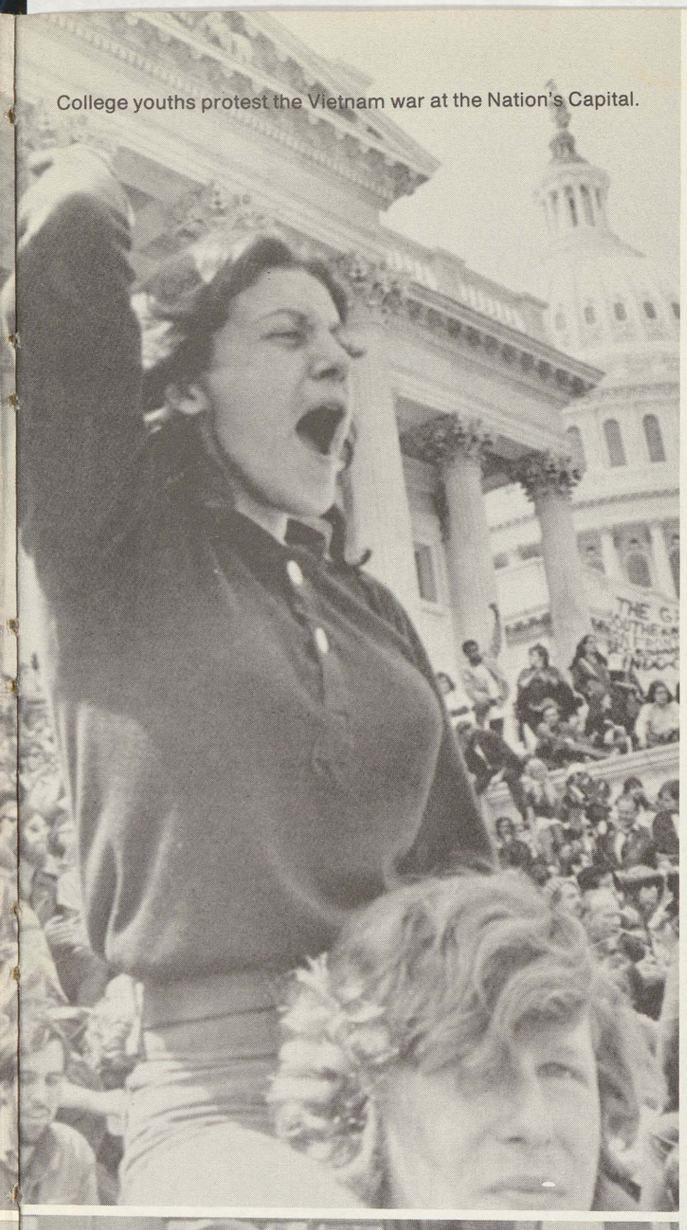
THE PEOPLE



On March 26,1979, a 30 year dream came true as Isreal and Egypt signed a peace treaty.

The United States established diplomatic relations with China after breaking off with China.



College youths protest the Vietnam war at the Nation's Capital.

Former President Nixon calmly listens to advisers in pre-Watergate days.

We the people,
of the United States,
in order to form a more perfect Union,
establish justice,
insure domestic tranquility,
provide for the common defense,
and secure the blessings of Liberty, to ourselves and posterity.

This was the start of a new era for the United States, as was the beginning of the seventies.

The sixties left us with one small step for man and one giant leap for mankind, as Neil A. Armstrong set foot on the moon for the first time. The seventies arrived with the United States still fighting a senseless war.

Many people remembered the seventies as a time of change. For 28 days, five astronauts lived in space in the spaceship Skylab, while the Watergate scandal unfolded.

While many people were looking at pictures of Mars to see if there was life on it, "rock-n-roll" was dying and disco was moving in.

In 1974, the nation's worst drought was occurring, while 2,000 miles away the Alaskan pipeline was being built.

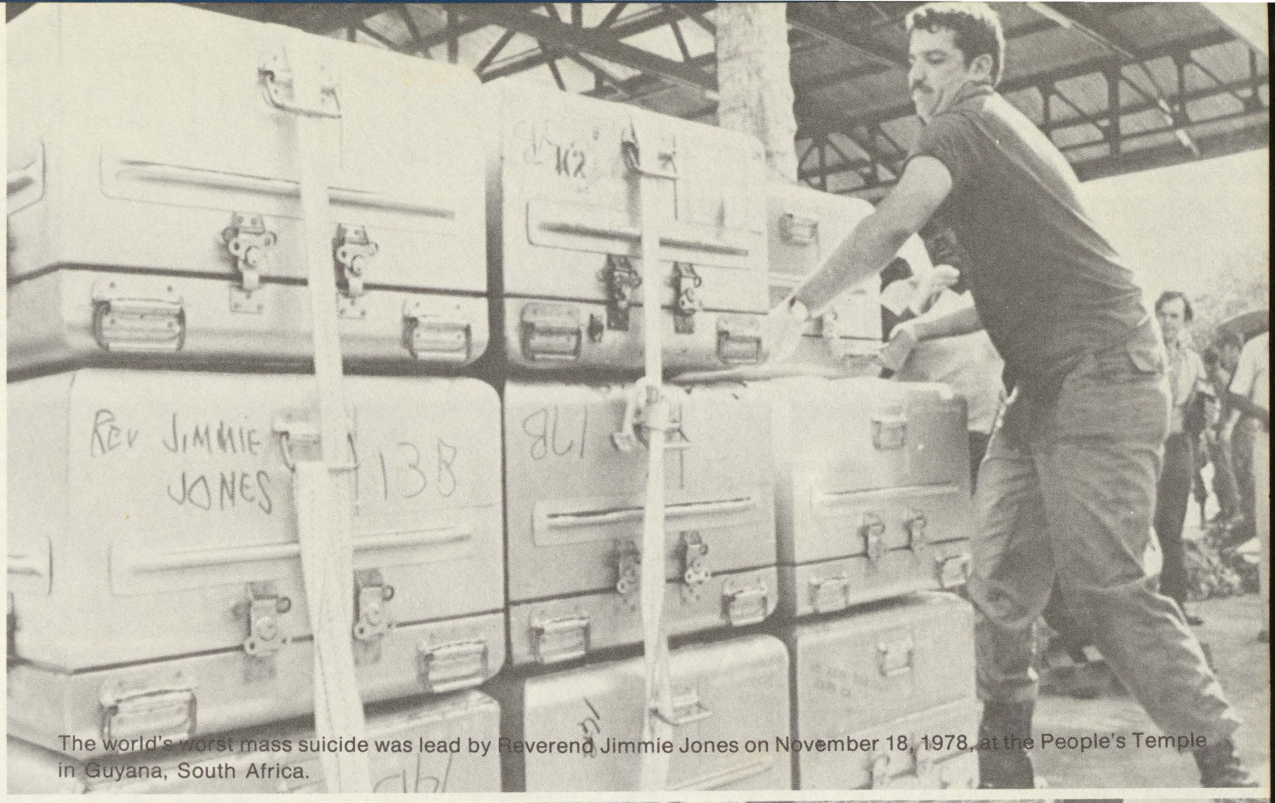
While the women's Liberation Movement was on the uprise, the world's first space shuttle was being prepared to take astronauts into space, and return them safely to Earth.

We the people, the determined, conquering, and self reliant citizens of the United States, have progressed through a decade of everchanging lifestyles, yet still carry the Great Seal of the United States of America.

New forms of air travel, such as the 747 and the Concorde, continually bring the world closer together.

On January 27, 1973, the last American troops pulled out of Vietnam.

The people of Iran protest against the Shah.



The world's worst mass suicide was lead by Reverend Jimmie Jones on November 18, 1978, at the People's Temple in Guyana, South Africa.

The last total eclipse of the sun took place on February 26,1979; the next one will occur in the year 2017.

Look around. Do you notice some changes at DM? New faces, procedures and requirements have arrived. Student Union has been changed to Student Congress, an active student government organization. Soccer, the new sport at MacArthur went over big with over 40 students trying out. Many of the graduation requirements have been changed for the freshmen; Health Ed and competency tests are just a few. The attendance procedure has been changed because of the high number of absences. Individual cards are used to report names to the office during that hour of the absence. (A) The new west hall building manager is Mrs. Johnson. (B) Mr. Allington returned to the math classroom after resigning as assistant principal. (C) Electives has three new faces: Linda Marr, home economics; John Rush, typing; and Karen Minard, Spanish. (D) Mr. Strautnieks is the new assistant principal. (E) Andy Strautnieks takes the competency test required of 1982 graduates. (F) Mrs. Smith is the new electives building manager.

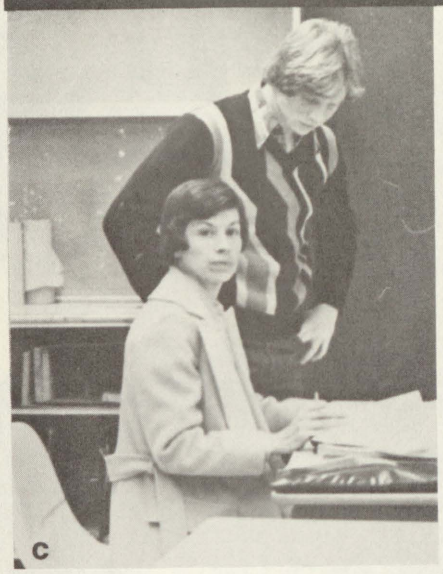
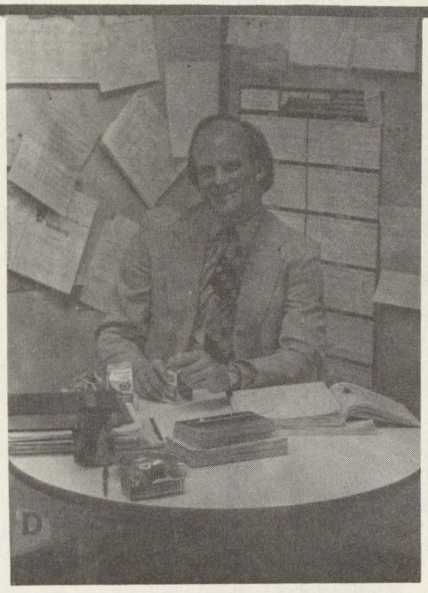
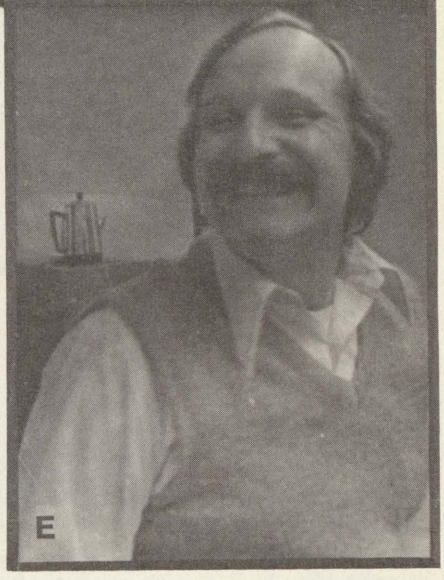
A YEAR OF CHANGE







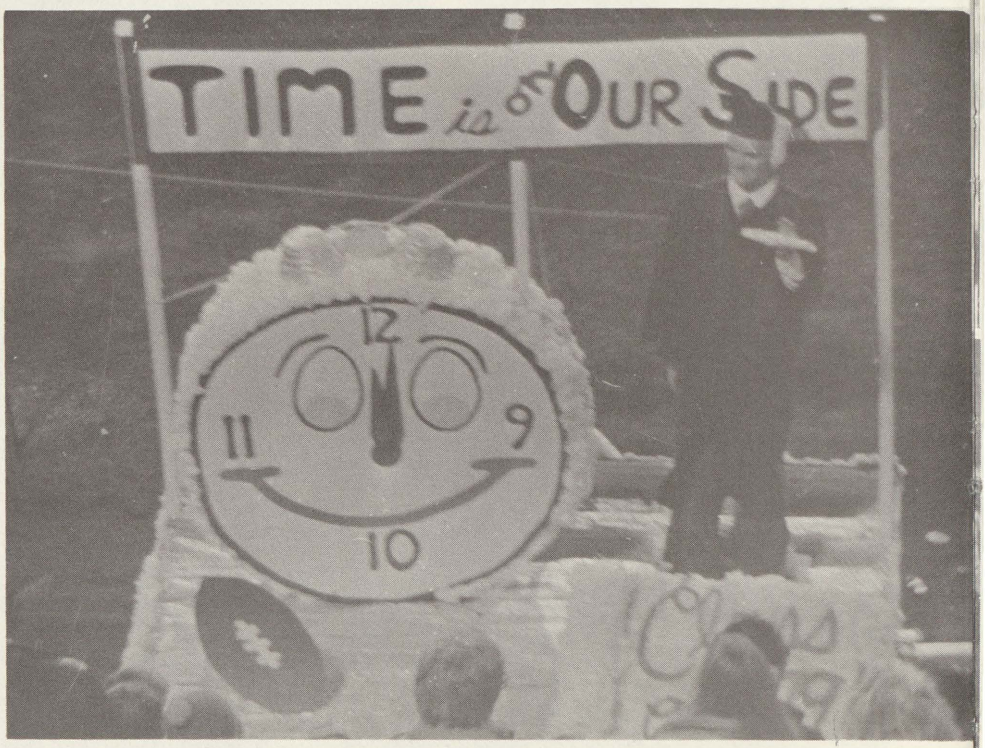
(A) The new computer in electives supervised by Ms. Melcher has been a great help to many students in choosing a career. The computer tells of the different opportunities, educational requirements, and salaries. (B) The Kiva has new computer cash registers which helped the many workers in the kiva. (C) Mrs. Klein, one of the new teachers in East Hall, replaced Mrs. Douglas who took a leave of absence. (D) Mr. Doane is the new psychology teacher at MacArthur. (E) The new special-ed teacher is Mr. Day. (F) Students in home-construction, under the direction of Mr. Zimmerman, changed the study carols to storage areas.

HOMECOMING

Ann McCabe applauds as Sandy Egloff is named queen.

Ven Johnson escorts Jane Grimaldi.

The 1978 Homecoming queen candidates were escorted in front of the student body on October 12th. The tension felt by everyone was soon over as Sandy Egloff was named Homecoming Queen for 1978. Her attendants were Ann McCabe and Mary Kay Loiacano. Friday night the girls were escorted across the field by their parents. Sandy was crowned by 1977 Queen Chris Mikesell. The girls were driven around the field in Mercedes Benz convertables. To end the half time ceremony the class floats paraded around the field, joined by the modern music masters float for the first time.



The class of '79 wins their second float competition.

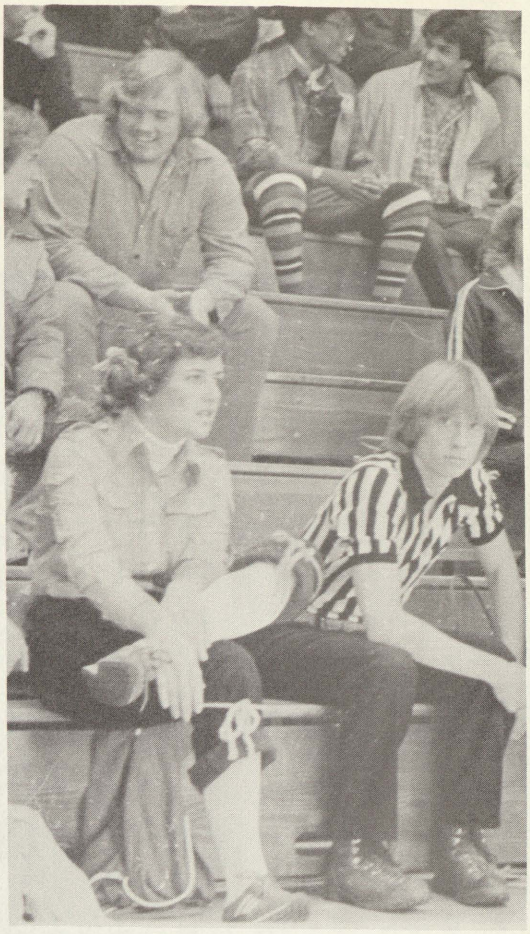
Crazy Day was definitely crazy as Student Congress President Heidi Hug Demonstrates to us . . Cute! Crazy Day was highlighted by students' dressing and acting ridiculously, especially at the assembly where pie-eating and kissing contests took place.



Dan Nearing and Chris Humphrey assisted Student Congress with the assembly.

Spirit Week was a great turnout this year as many of the students participated in the event . . . Among these events were powder puff, hat day, crowning assembly and crazy day.

Ms. Sandy Egloff, Homecoming Queen was given recognition at the crowning assembly. She was escorted by Mike Short . . .

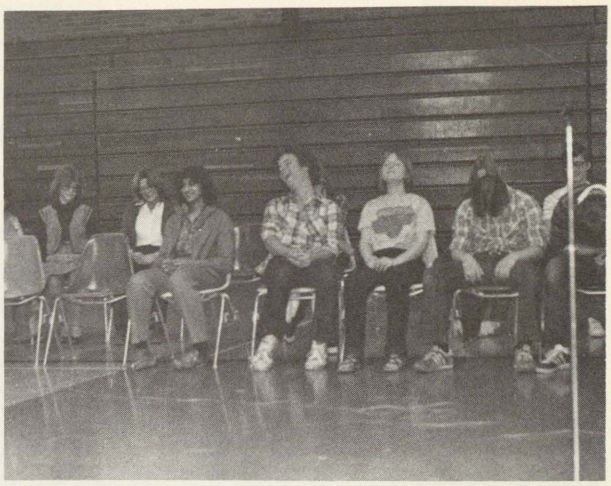
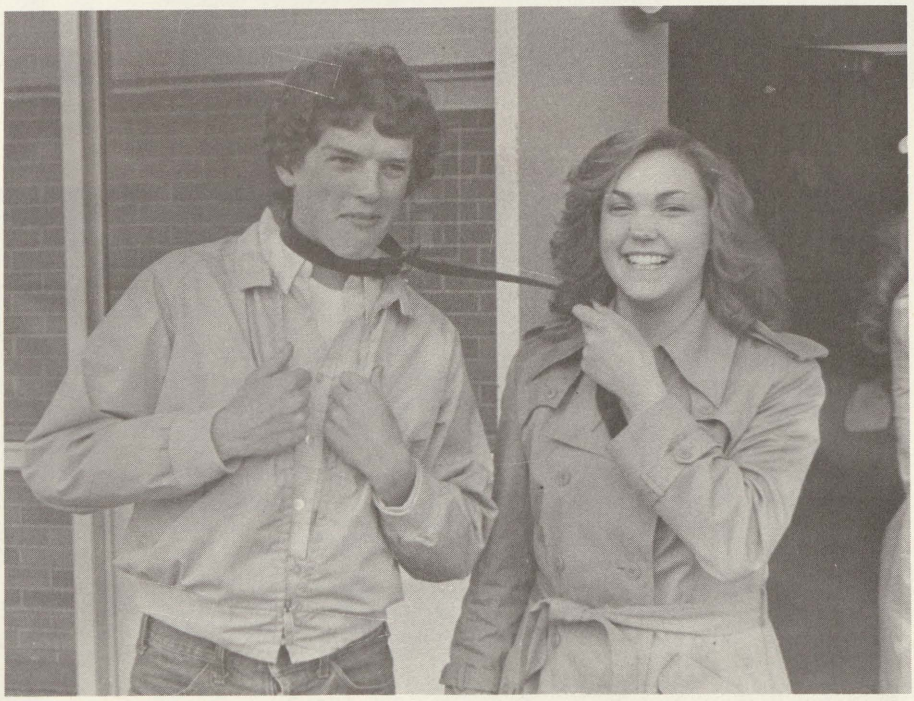
ASSEMBLY



HYPNOTIST



Ann Garske makes sure she has complete control over her slave, Colin Tucker.

Cool, cloudy weather didn't stop Spring Fever Week, sponsored by Student Congress, from being a success.

The week began with the hypnotist assembly where students volunteered to demonstrate the therapeutic value of hypnotism.

Crazy Day and California Beach Day were successful though the weather dampened the spirits of some. The sun shone the next day for the tug of war which took place over the pond. The seniors tugged their way to a victory with juniors close behind. The slave auction held in the auditorium, under the direction of Mr. Meyer and Mr. Collier, had many participants.

The week was finalized on Friday with the General Staff Assembly. Elected to serve as the general of the year was Scott Primack. Serving as attendants were Bill MacConnel and Steve Powell. Other staff members were Ven Johnson, Mike Short, Bruce Gnatkowski and Mark Flegenheimer.

All in all, the week had a great turnout with many participants. The effort put forth by the students was reflected in the daily activities.

FESTIVAL

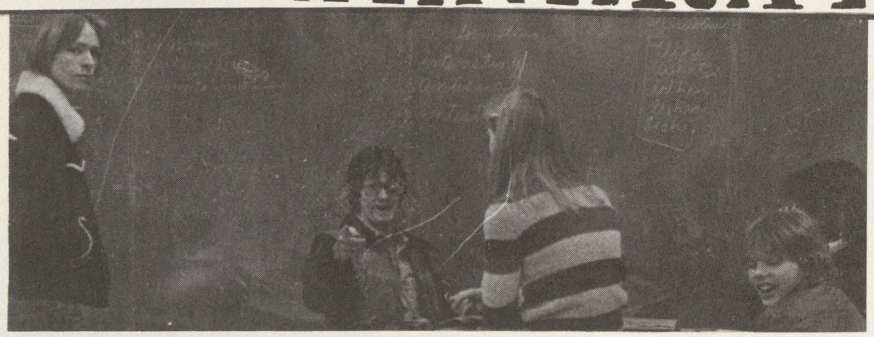
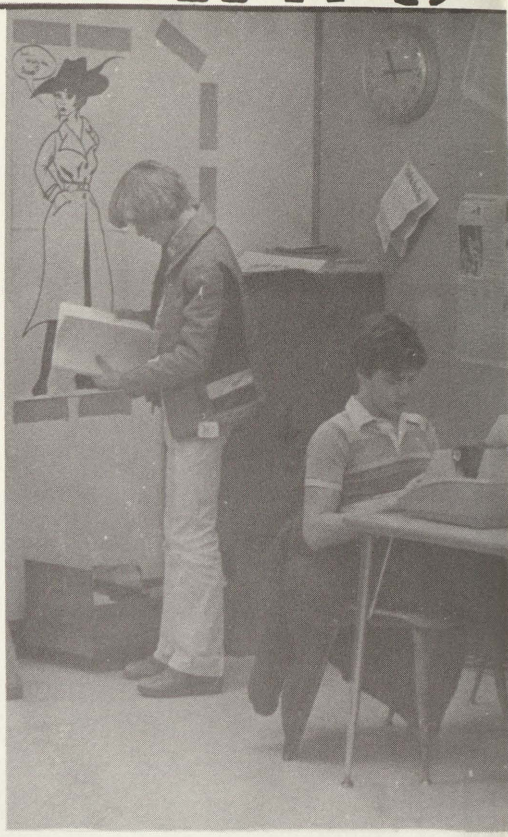
A parage down Center Street began the Second Annual MacArthur Festival. Pom pon girls, The General Staff, cheerleaders, The Homecoming Court, clowns, horses . . . all helped open the successful event. Organizing the festival for the second year were Oscar Huyghe and co-chairmen Liz Arcangeli and Barb Steinmetz. The Festival had many exhibitions including glass blowing, art displays, dancers, and "Noah" the Boa. There were also many demonstrations to please everyone's taste. Concert Bands from DM, Ike, Ottowa, and Chippewa, the "Jaws of Life" demonstration, a magic show, a puppet show, folk dancers, and a softball game were just some of the events. Despite the rain, the MacArthur Concert Band and the Eisenhower Concert Band joined together to perform three numbers for the Festival Finale.

GENERAL NEWS



"Hey, we're making news," points out Dave Grunwell.

Deep dark depression seems to be hanging over the news staff.

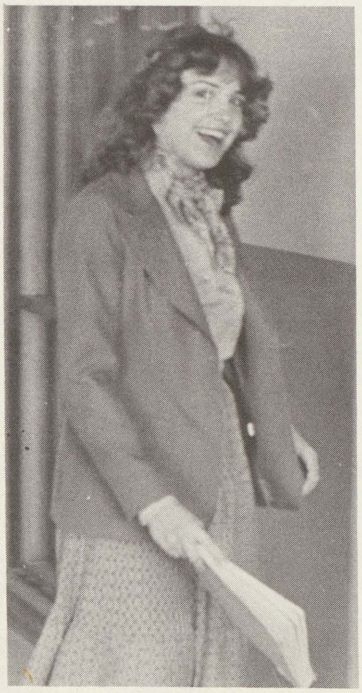


Pete Connolly and Mike Pegram put a lot of hard work into their stories.

"Any news is bad news", doesn't always hold true to form, especially in the case of MacArthur's own bi-weekly news publication, THE GENERAL NEWS.

Under the direction of Mrs. Furgason the GENERAL NEWS put out thirteen issues. Lisa Wood, a senior, and Amy Powell, a junior, also took responsibility as co-editors-in-chief this past year.

Special items featured in the paper every issue added to the originality of the paper. "Generals of the Week" gave notice to some of MacArthur's more intriguing athletes. "Entertainment and the Art" discussed the latest on what's happening in the community in the way of culture. "Pegram's Predictions" held his thoughts of the future for the various sport teams of MacArthur. Random happenings that occurred to the students and faculty were in "People in General". In "Days of Yore" memorable trivia of the past was recorded.



Leslie Gugino seems very pleased with the interview.

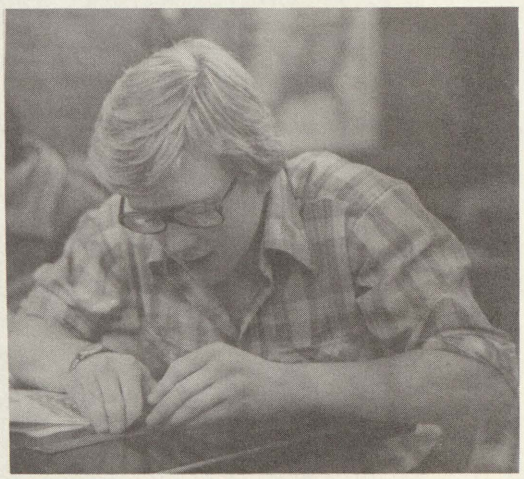
Under the direction of Mrs. Holmes the 1979, ITELLA yearbook was produced. The ITELLA staff put many long and hard hours into completing their mission before the last deadline.

Doug Hawke was Editor-in-chief, while Joan Nieman and Mary Trier assisted in the production of sports and activities pages. The thirteen other members of the yearbook staff helped in various ways. Connie Grundas was business manager. Greg Adams, Doug Hawke, and Joan Nieman were the photographers, while the rest of the staff designed the spreads.



Editor Doug Hawke carefully crops a picture for the football spread.

"Finished!" smiles Laura Schaefer.

"Just relax, it's easy. Watch me," says Bob Mueller.

Dave Smith finds that getting involved helps him be creative.

"Sometimes work just has to be done," thinks Lisa Wood.

Each year the VENTUS staff works hard to have the students literary magazine finished before the end of the year, but this year the staff had to work twice as hard because of the difficulties that arose. Finding time when the six members of VENTUS plus the advisor could meet seemed to be a large problem for the staff. Time consuming and sometimes difficult was the problem of sorting the good works from the not so good. Because VENTUS is not a class, and there was a new editor (Bob Mueller) things got off to a slow start, but it wasn't long before things got on an even keel.

The DM Cheerleaders are real promoters of school spirit. The girls work very hard at practices, assemblies and performances to help promote the attitude we need for our athletic program. Recognition must be given to the cheerleaders!

Seniors on the Varsity Team are Sandy Egloff, Heidi Hug, Ruth Hovis, Laura Wilson, and Sue Wintermeyer.

Under the direction of Ms. Busaid the girls set forth all their effort and pride to keep the crowd inspired. It was noticeable, thanks to the cheerleaders, that the enthused crowd supported our team through victories as well as setbacks.

The dedication of each girl's time is noticeable through smiles and spirit. The girls worked well together and set forth the qualities essential for a winning team.

The Douglas MacArthur Pom Pon girls make a "M" to the beat of the music.

The JV and Varsity pom pon squads along with the cheerleaders are our Number 1 promoters of school spirit. Both of the squads spend many hours a week learning and perfecting routines. They perform at our pep assemblies and halftime at the football and basketball games.

This year they have a new coach, Sue Rank. She was on Varsity pom pon for four years at MacArthur. She helped them with their many routines including the tin soldiers that they portrayed at Christmas. The JV and Varsity pom pon squad also used flashlights and umbrellas in their routines.

GO GO GO GO GO GO GO GO GO GO GO GO

Pep Club, 78-79 returned after four years. The last Pep Club at D.M. was in 1974. The new club was formed to encourage students to get more involved in our school, and to give less popular sports recognition.

Sandy Egloff got the club started in fulfillment of the office of vice-president, according to the Constitution. The original list of members consisted of over 150 students. Throughout the first semester the club worked on many projects to support the Generals. They sold balloons, and D.M. window stickers. They ordered pep buses, made signs, and passed out pom pons.

Towards the end of the semester the majority of enthusiasm ceased. So, the future of Pep Club at D.M. is unknown.

Anxious students await departure from the rest area, going to the semi-final Grand Rapids game.

Triple Trio and Showcase require an audition before students become members of the groups. Mrs. Schopp divides her time between Eisenhower and MacArthur, and with all of the outside performances devotes a large number of hours to the vocal program of Saginaw Township.

A Christmas concert in December, the annual MacArthur Festival, a performance at Fashion Square Mall, and the Spring Concert were some of the events that the three groups performed at this year.

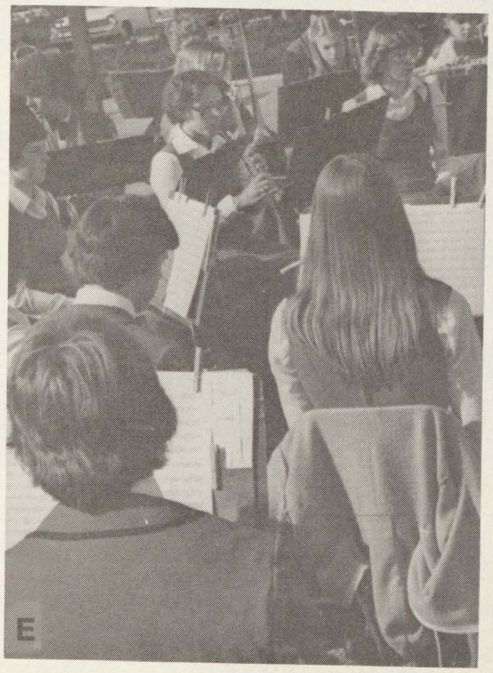
FINE TUNING



The 1979 Concert Band had an active year bringing fine music to the Saginaw area. They performed, along with the choir, in a Christmas Concert, and in March, the band played at a winter concert with the General Revue and a brass sextet. After that, they went to the District Band Festival and received a second division rating. The band also sent many members to the Solo and Ensemble Festival, where they received several one and two division ratings. The Concert Band also played at Law Day and participated in the MacArthur Festival.

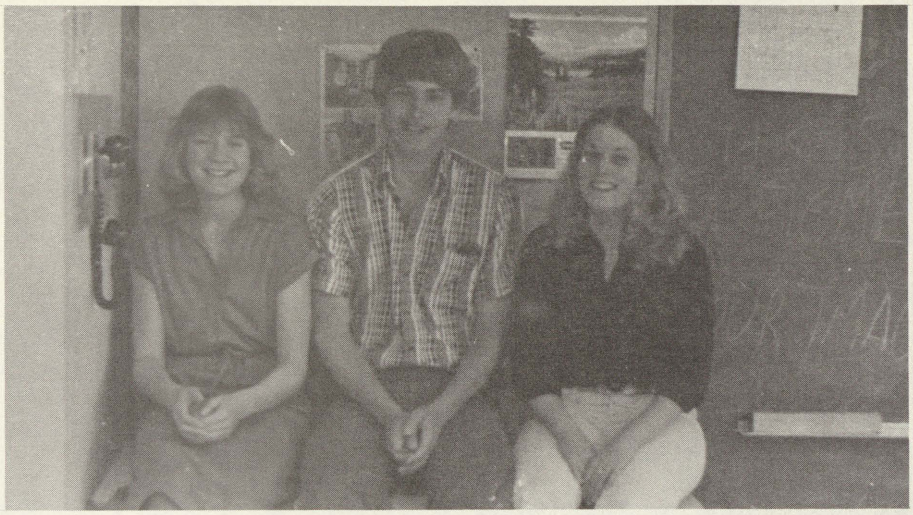
REPS ON THE MOVE



Sue Arcangeli, Ven Johnson, and Gretchen Boldt are chairpersons, respectively of Community Involvment, Communications, and Improvements.

In 1977-78 Student Union revised our constitution to include more student involvement in the school. At this time, they also changed the name of the organization to "Student Congress". The president, Heidi Hug, came on full force, and led Student Congress into many activities. They began the year with a very successful "Spirit Week." Spirit Week started out with Hat Day, 50's day, and Over-all day. It ended with the annual Homecoming Parade and crowning of the Queen. As the school year progressed they sponsored dances, carnation sales, the Competition Plays, and the annual Douglas MacArthur Blood Drive. For Spring Fever Week they planned the slave auction, Tug-O-War, a school picnic, and other activities. They closed the week with the announcement of the Five Star General, and the General Staff.

For their last function they elected the 1979-80 Student Congress members.

They also held several group activities such as a hay ride, canoe trip, and several social gatherings.

INTERNATIONAL FOREIGN

Barry Rietenga and Nancy Neibling enjoy treats at the dinner.

International Foreign Language Week was held April 2nd-6th at MacArthur. It began with an International dinner on Monday night. Members of French, German, Spanish, and Latin classes brought special foods representative of each country. Tuesday featured a dress-up day and participating students wore traditional, colorful costumes. On Wednesday, the foreign language teachers exchanged classes and the German and Spanish classes held secret word games. A Treasure Hunt was held on Thursday. Two students from each language class followed clues to find the hidden treasure. The secret word games for the French and Latin classes were held on Friday.

Some of the Spanish and German language students went to Central Michigan University on Friday to attend a Foreign Language Convention. On Saturday, French and Spanish students went to Saginaw Valley College to recite poetry. All in all, the week was a great success and was enjoyed by many participants. Many thanks to the foreign language teachers, Mrs. Lesley, Mrs. Minard, Mr. Ruonavaara, and Mr. Meyer, who planned the week long activities.

The Douglas MacArthur Girls' Track team of 1978-79 had an undefeated season. There were many school records broken that cannot be broken again, because next year the distances will be measured in meters.

The girls, who worked long and hard to achieve their goals, were coached by both Mr. and Mrs. Call. The performance and dedication of the team pleased the coaches.

Even though the track team was mainly freshmen and sophomores, every member of the team put forth a lot of effort to win the White Pine Conference Meet and place second in Regionals. The season was a prosperous one.

The DM track season, 1978-79, was highlighted by four school records being set. Mark Meyers threw the discus 132'9½", John Cowell leaped 6'1" in the high jump, Nick Gogri ran and leaped for a 41.16 in the low hurdles, and Ron Gonzales sprinted to a 10.04 in the 100 yard dash.

Ron Gonzales also took two sixths in the 100 yard dash and in the 220 yard dash, in the state meet.

The Honorary Captain, Mark Ebell, tied a senior low hurdle record. Ron Gonzales took the Most Valuable Player award for the second consecutive year. Bob Hawke and Bob Smith were the Co-Most Improved Players.

Coach McAuley felt that the squad was young and opponents should beware next year.

Front row: Mike Brown, Larry Wade, Harold Sanchez, Steve Rosenbaum, Jim Salamon, Jim Massey, Mark Beyersdorf, Chol Ho Park, John Mayer, Greg Boschma, Jamie Dole, Bob Hawke. The 1979 Girls Softball teams made more than a mere showing this year, as the Varsity team won more than half of the White Pine conference games that they played, not to mention having a 12-4 overall win-loss record. The Varsity team went to the regionals this year. Coach Skulley really shaped the girls into a base hitting team.

The JV team, coached by Miss Burnham, held a 5-5 win-loss record for the season. Both teams did their best to keep the General Machine number one. FIELDERS CHOICE

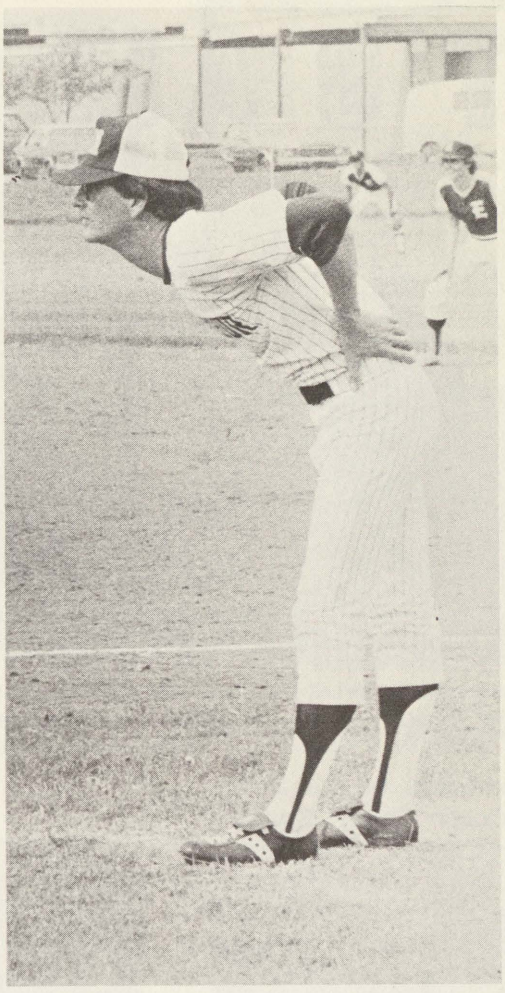
Jeff Digenova exemplifies the team's speed by stealing second base.



Coach Davenport gives the batter the eagle-eye, wondering, "Did he get the signal?"

Rich Baskins waits for the pay-off pitch.

Coach Kaligian took the 1978-'79 varsity baseball team to a 19-6 season.

The outfielders, Don Modrall, Dean Kelley, and Bob Leibinger, all had good speed and they had rifles for throwing arms. They also teamed up for an offensive threat.

The infielders, Mark Gerard, Jim Haeger, Rich Baskins, and Bruce Gnatkowski, commited few errors and kept the team in during close games.

The pitching staff, Mark Gerard (5-0), Dave Stroebel (8-2), Jim Leibinger (3-4), and Tom Martuch (3-0) combined for an excellent year on the mound.

The representatives on the White Pine Conference team were, Mark Gerard, Bruce Gnatkowski, and Dean Kelley.

The accomplished team's goals for the 1978-'79 season were, to win the district title and to go on to the regional games. The goal of winning the White Pine Conference for the third year in a row fell short.

The team's motto for the year was, "we don't do anything extraordinary, but we do everything extraordinarily well."

The Freshmen team sported a 13-5 year long record. The team coached by Mr. Leibinger, showed improvement in all parts of their play.

The Top Twenty—consists of outstanding students with diverse backgrounds representing scholastic achievement. The rank of each student is not revealed because the competition is not meant for individual acclaim but for identifing the elite whole.

These students have varying interests. John Hruby and Scott Primack played football for DM while Laura Wilson was a cheerleader. Scott Patterson was on the swim team. Laura Bilby was on the girls basketball team while Steve Powell was on the boys' basketball team. Also, Mary G. McKinley was girls' volleyball team.

Many of the Top Twenty members were musically oriented. Jeri Bell, Kathy Johnson, Yvonne Gifford, Susan Spualding, Jeannine Reisig, and Lynn Ausserer all played in the DM marching and concert band, while Mary Giszczak sang for Triple Trio.

Along with studying, Susan Spaulding raised horses. Lori Jakes played the guitar and Darrel Koester worked at the Township Library. Also, Mary Ebell was an amateur photographer. Jim Putz and Jim Haeger played golf for DM. All in all the Top Twenty was extremely talented.

MacArthur's band and Triple Trio provided background music and brief entertainment for the Commencement service.

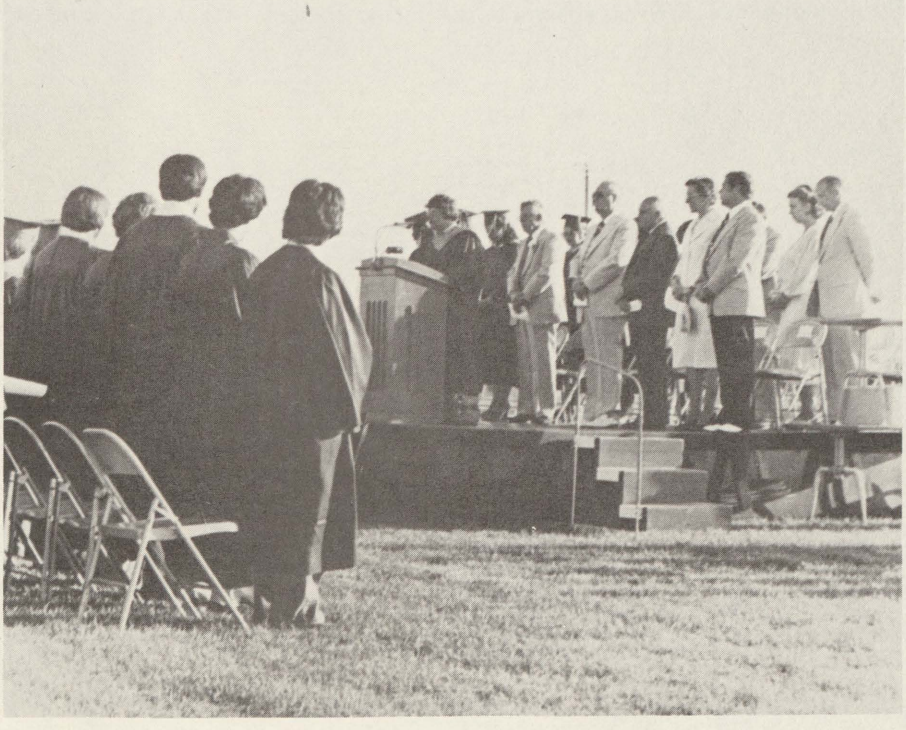
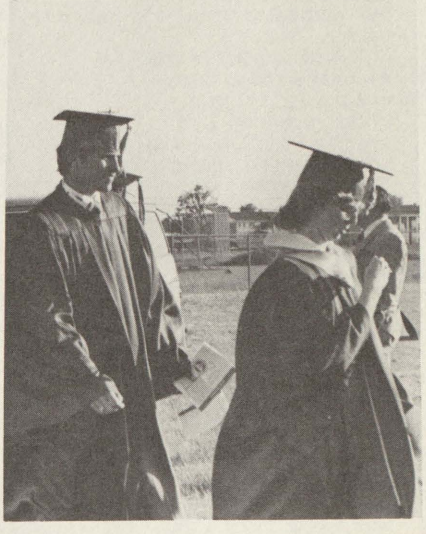
The theme of Baccalaureate was, "We've Only Just Begun" played by Paula Kunnen as the graduates marched into the auditorium. Ann McCabe and Meg Dwyer gave the Scripture Readings. Graduates and their families listened to Reverend Gary Bell from the First United Methodist Church, Pastor Donald Loomer, from Hopeville Memorial Baptist Church and Father Edward Tlucek from St. Thomas Aquinas Catholic Church.

After Mr. Huyghe gave the Benediction, the graduates marched out to "Looks like we made it."



With members of the Board of Education, Mr. Huyghe, Mr. Strautnieks, and other speakers behind him, Scott Primack delivered the invocation.



"Can't this line move any faster?" questions Ven Johnson.

June 5, 1979 at 7:30 p.m., was the final day for seniors at MacArthur. Commencement was held on the football field with the parents and friends filling in the home bleachers. As Mr. Bellen directed the band playing "Pomp and Circumstance," the graduates marched onto the field.

The ceremony started with the national anthem followed by the invocation delivered by Scott Primack. Sandy Egloff, Ven Johnson, Ann McCabe, and Heidi Hug cordially made speeches.

Each student reflected on the sad departure of friends and the richness of education. Commencement ended after everyone received their diplomas, happy smiles, and some sad tears.

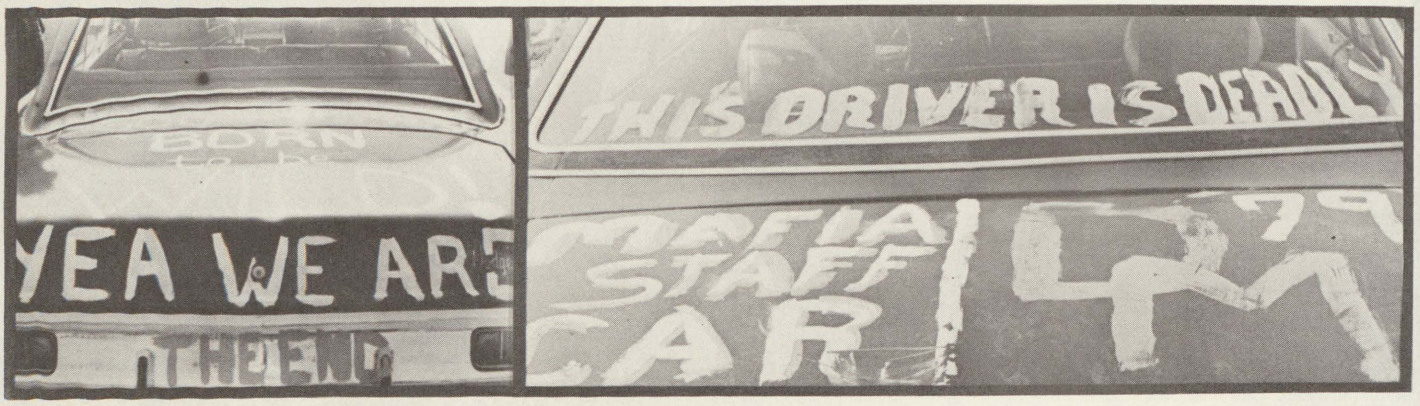
"... ARE MEMORIES!"

SENIOR DAZE

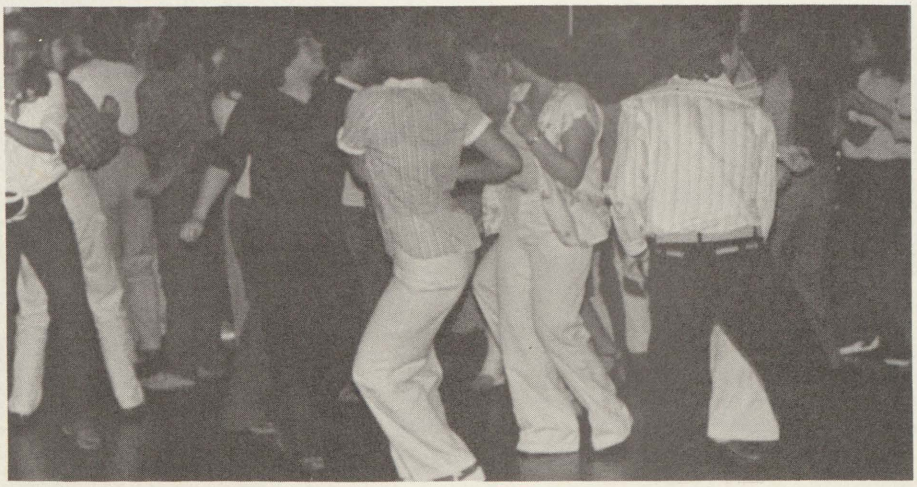
Dave Grunwell, Junko Nishikado, Jorge Pericchi, Anna Rameriz, and Jill Johnson seem to be enjoying themselves at the Senior Party.



Some seniors produced a few new "paint jobs" to celebrate graduation.

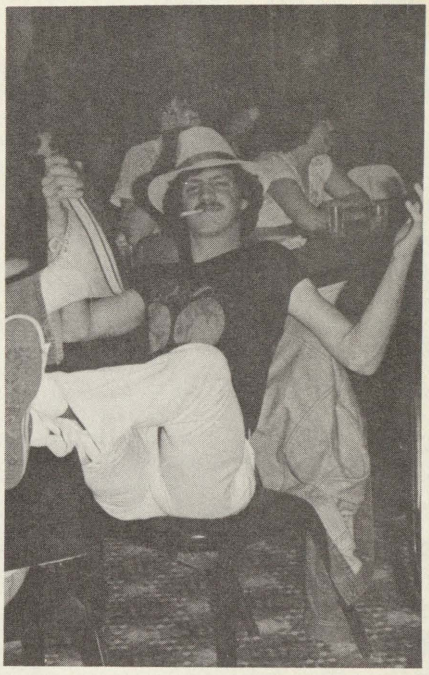
At D.M.H.S. like many other high schools, the months of May and June are filled with various activities to honor and commend the seniors.

Early May brought us the Senior Honor Banquet, where seniors were recognized for scholastic achievement. Shortly after, followed the Junior-Senior Prom, the last formal dance held by DM, the seniors could attend. The Class of '79 celebrated their last day in school by having their senior party that night. It was complete with subs, sandwiches, potato chips, pop, and pretzels, and the Rock-Roll band Ceyx. Many students slept out at the pond that night and awoke the next morning to attend the annual mock assembly. The following Friday was the Senior trip to Cedar Point with many private graduation parties after. Formal Baccalaureate services were held June 3rd in the Auditorium. Then, June 5th, Commencement, brought tears to the eyes, and smiles to faces of the new alumni.

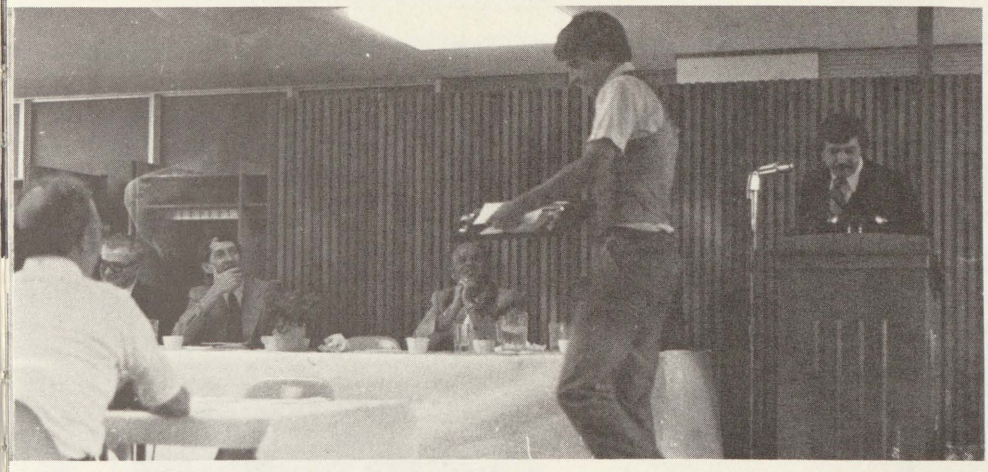


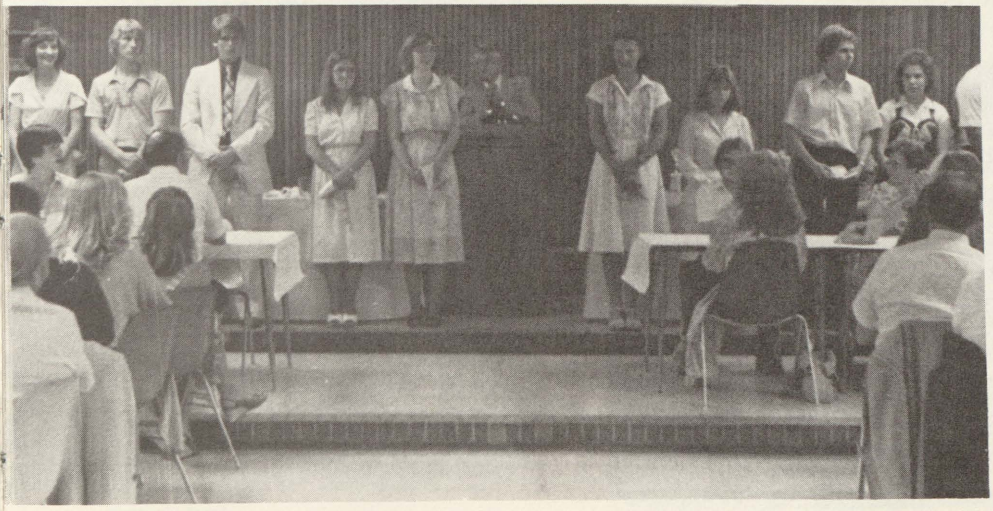
The senior party held at Kirk's Dining Hall, was where the Class of '79 danced and partied all night long, to the Rock-Roll sound of Ceyx.

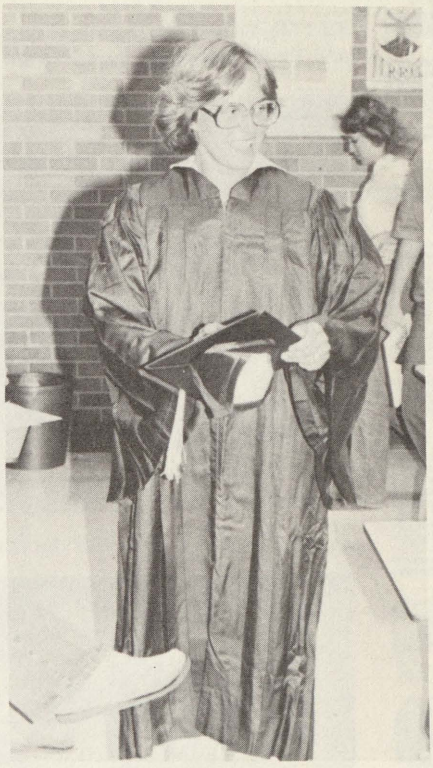
Bill Pfund, John Forster, and Mark Flegenheimer made fun of the Juniors during the annual mock assembly.



"Ahh, now this is a party!!", exclaims Bob Mueller.







Mary Burau is very pleased with the way her gown fits.

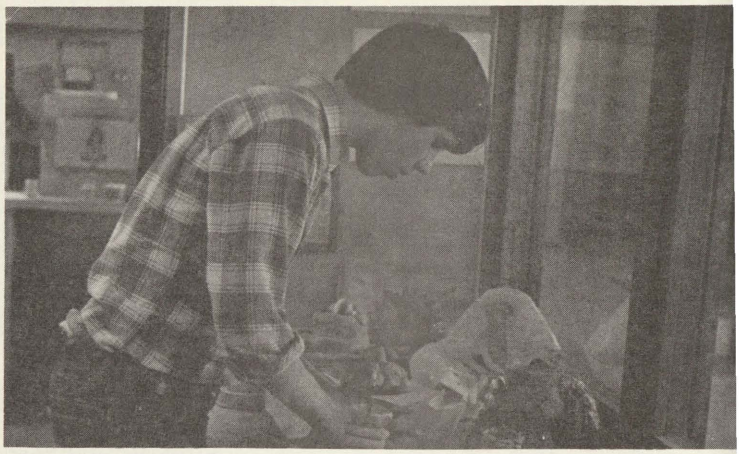
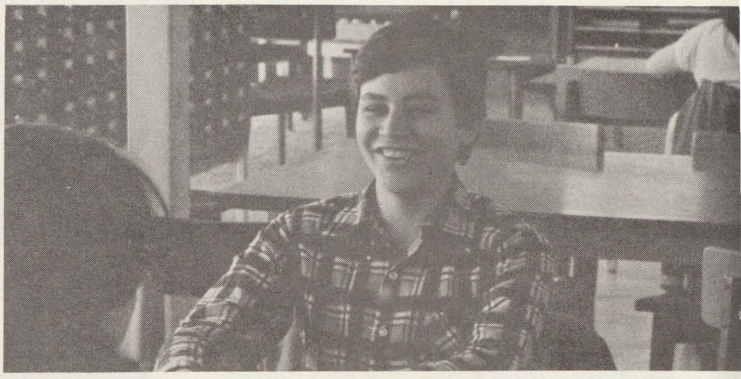
Bobby socks, shades, leather jackets and pony tails were the fashions of Senior recognition day on February 9th. The seniors who were involved in various extra curricular activities were recognized by the whole student body during a special assembly prepared by the Senior Class Council. The Triple Trio made a special appearance and performed "Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy of Company B". After the basketball game a dance featuring the Rockers was put on by the Senior Class in the Kiva.

"Do you think this tree is me?" questions Gorild "Sam" Heggelund smiling.



Toby Dettbarn gets rid of his tardy marks by cleaning up Mr. Copp's Art room.



"Wait a minute, we don't really have a test in Government next hour do we?" asks Jorge Pericchi.

The exchange student program has been a tradition for many years here at DM. This year unlike past years no one from MacArthur is an exchange student in a foreign country.

We did however have six exchange students staying with us. We had students from Norway, Japan, Germany, Venezeula and Sweden.

These exchange students enjoy America and the American way of life. Junko Nishikado said, "I want to come to America to make new friends and strengthen myself." Tobias Dettbarn thinks America is new and different in some ways, "There is no football, just soccer. Also, we learn English, but not words like weird and rowdy."

MacArthur was very lucky to have so many exchange students this year. Each very special individual showed us how to appreciate America, while they broadened their own horizons.

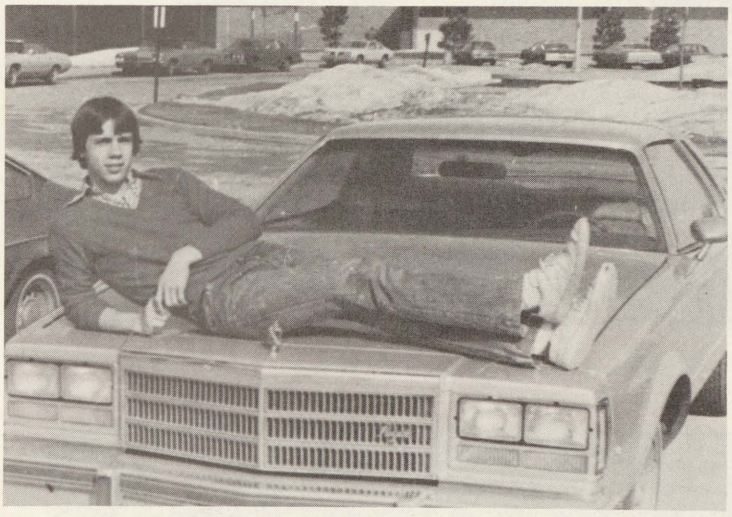
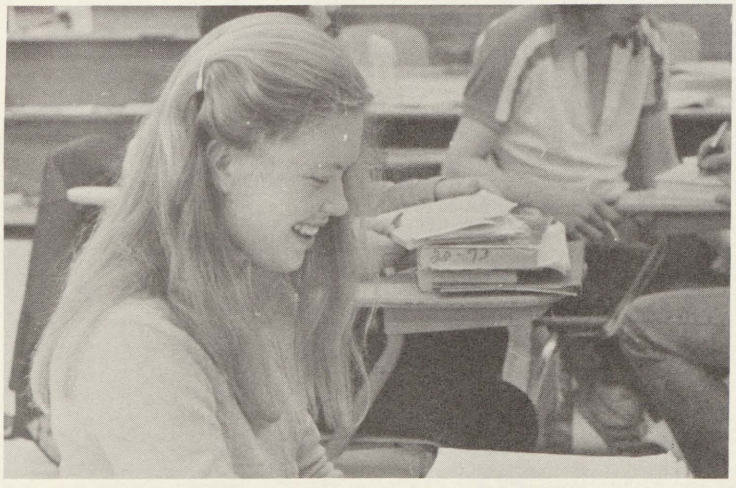
..WELCOME TO OUR WORLD



"Ahh, I like the American way of life, it's nice and easy," comments Toby Dettbarn of Germany.



Gorild Heggelund seems to enjoy Mr. Coffey's American Government class.

The Junior class of 1980, consisting of 304 students, worked hard raising money in preparation for the Junior-Senior Prom. The class officers were President, C. Kreher; V.P., T. Holloway; Secretary, S. Pastirzyk; and Treasurer, L. Anderson. (A) "Wow, I could've had a V8!" says Leigh Stroebel. (B) "Earth to Steve Halaby." (C)Mary Baudoux is trying to decide what to have for lunch today. (D) "Don't bother me while I'm trying to study!" says Pam Riebe.

The all girl class council has raised money this year in various ways. A benefit dance for Larry Cummings was held, bake sales were held at T-way, and for St. Patrick's day green tinted carnations were sold.

Class rings for the first time were ordered in the Spring which afforded discounts and early delivery for the sophomores. Many of the sophomores participated in driver's training in the Summer and during the school year.

"The Traveling Sisters" received the Best Play award in the competition plays. Sophomores Laura McMahan and Jody Thick received best actress and supporting actress awards, respectively. Thus, sophomores walked off with 3 of the 5 awards in the competition plays. The directors were Nancy Simpkins and Jennie Losee.

ANOTHER BEGINNING

The freshman class of '82, with 305 members, has to be proud of itself. The freshman class had 79 people that made it on the first semester honor roll. Michael Fisk was elected as outstanding male freshman of the semester. Susan Foltz and Amy Reeve tied for the outstanding female freshmen. The class council has sponsored a few fund raising projects including a returnable can drive.

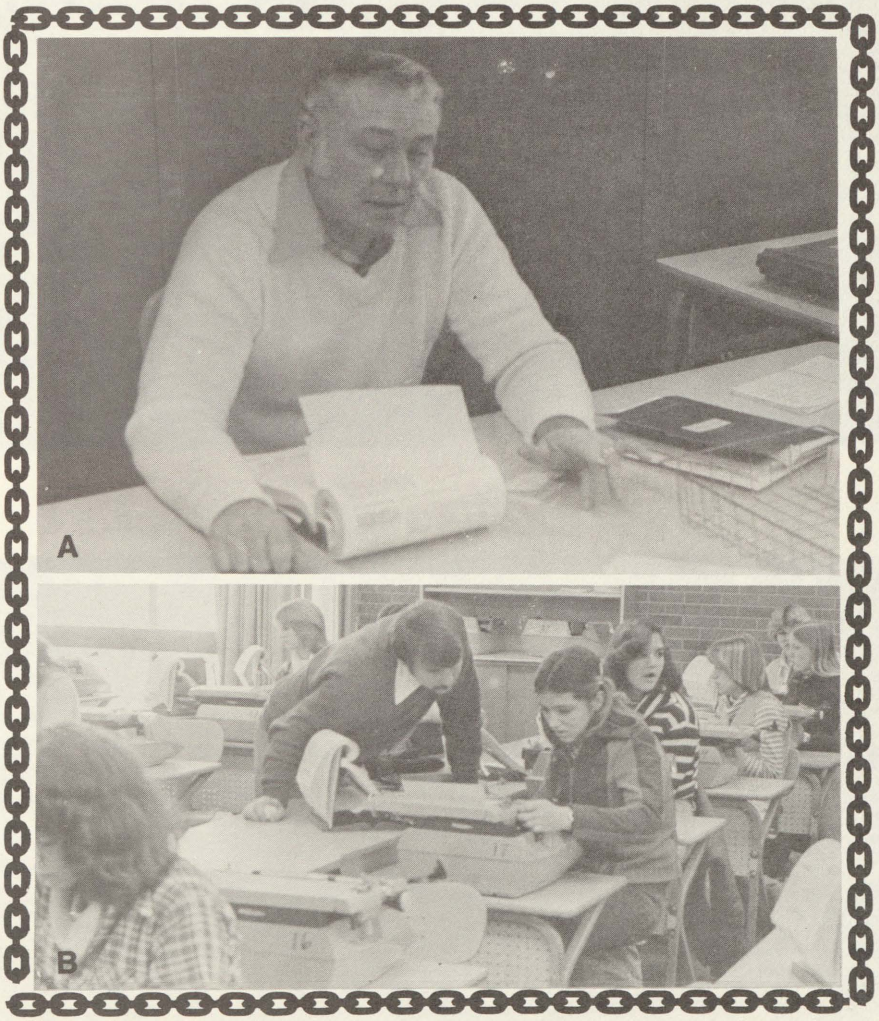
Mr. Bailey's business students are always found working diligently.

The electives building is the home of many varied classes every day. They range from Spanish to workshop, and from art to auto mechanics. Featured here are business, typing, and accounting. Business, taught by Mr. Bailey, is a class taken by many MacArthur Freshmen. They learn to write checks, figure budgets, and many other bank-related life skills. Miss Skulley, Mrs. Westendorf, and Mr. Rush teach typing. Typing is a very useful skill, students use it not only in preparation for college, but also for typing reports and other papers. Therefore many students here at DM take at least one typing class: either, Typing I, Personal Typing, or Typing AB (advanced beginner).

Accounting, better known as Bookkeeping, is also taught by Miss Skulley. Students spend most of their time learning the paperwork aspects of a business. For part of the year they have their own business, for example selling candy or making buttons. At the end of the month they balance their books the way a real business does.

Almost any MacArthur student can be found in Electives at some time during the day, and you can bet that most of them are taking one of these three types of classes.



(A) "These seven hour school days get to be a little much," thinks Mr. Bailey. (B) Mr. Rush loves to help his typing students. (C) Mr. Rush finishes some paper work during his preparation hour.

— ARC WELDERS

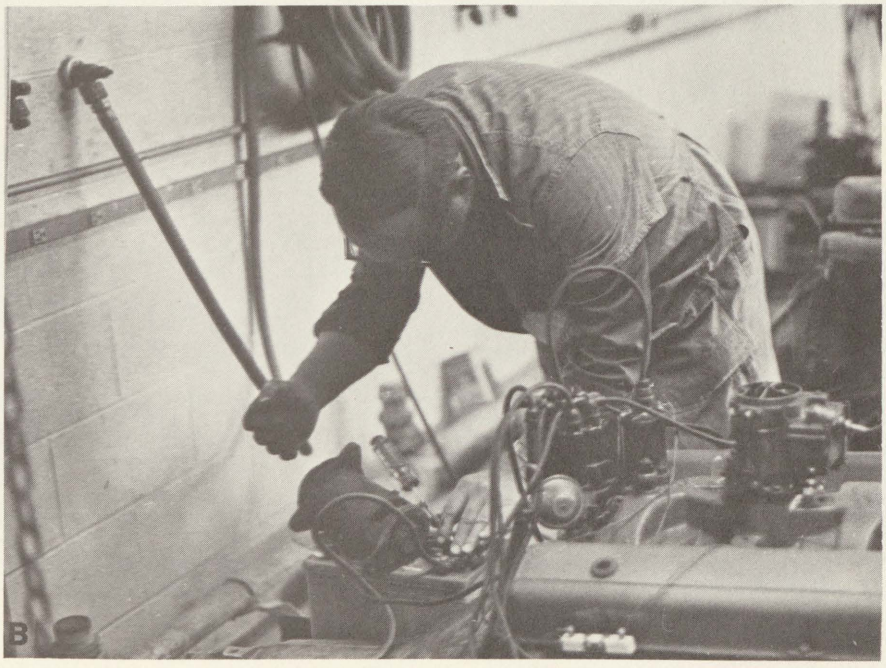
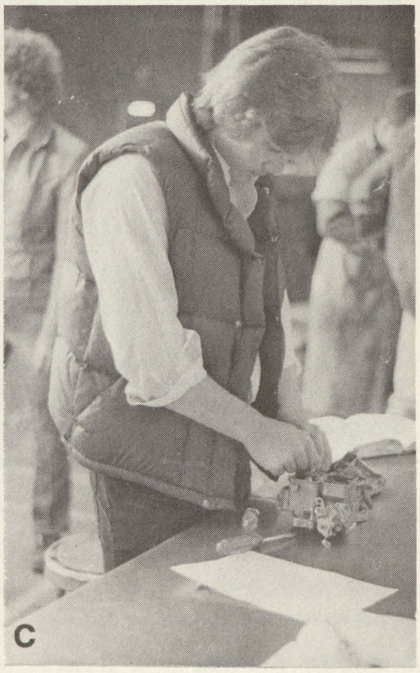
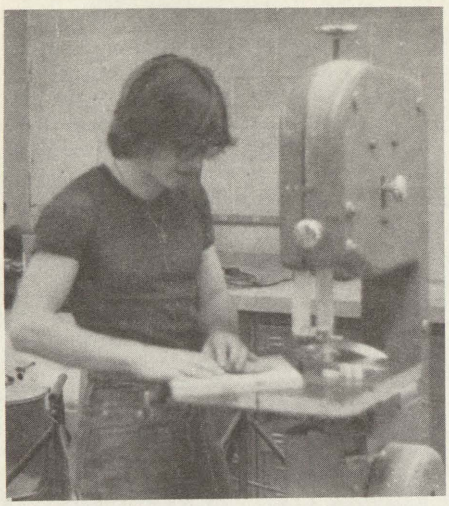
In the metal shop there are three different areas covered. They are welding, foundry, and project or machine area. The class is taught by Mr. Frank Tomsich. Among the more interesting and unique projects were swords, fish spears, and hammers. The favored projects were candle holders and lawn drink holders.

The auto mechanics class, taught by Mr. Bob Scherzer, does various activities such as tuning a car and a general teaching of repairs. According to a student, tuning a car involves checking various functions and parts such as points, spark plugs, fan belts, alternators, and distributors. These courses guide students toward possible careers.

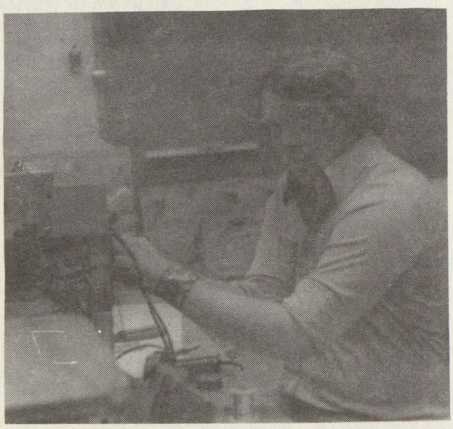




(A) Jeff Myers and Cindy Ferrio watch intently as instructor Bob Scherzer maps out an intricate plan for a difficult car tune-up job. (B) Bob Scherzer tries to figure out what exactly went wrong while a student was performing a tune-up. (C) Joe Zolton frantically studies the different parts of an auto carburator so that he may memorize them for a test being given the next day. (D) After Jeff Myers has pulled out all the spark plug wires and tested them to make sure they were in working condition, he puts his finger into the number one socket to test for TDC before installing the wires.



Tim Frost works skillfully on the band saw.



Phil Rowan fixes his TV to watch Monday Night Football.

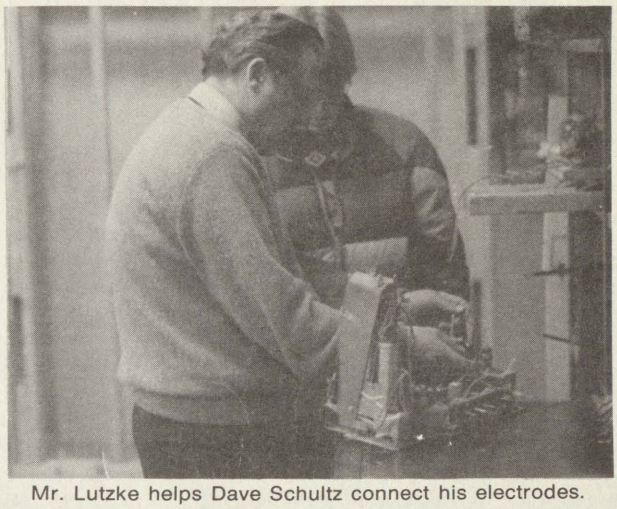
(Below) Working on the lathe, Dave Meyer demonstrates the correct procedure.

"Hey, Dennis Bourbina, you forgot the kitchen sink."

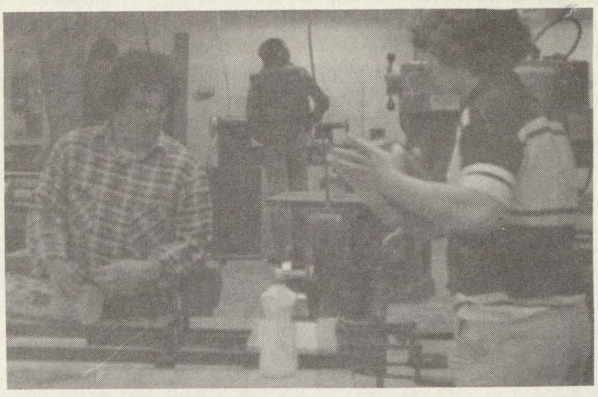
Mr. Nemecek sizes up his board.

CHOPS & SHOCKS

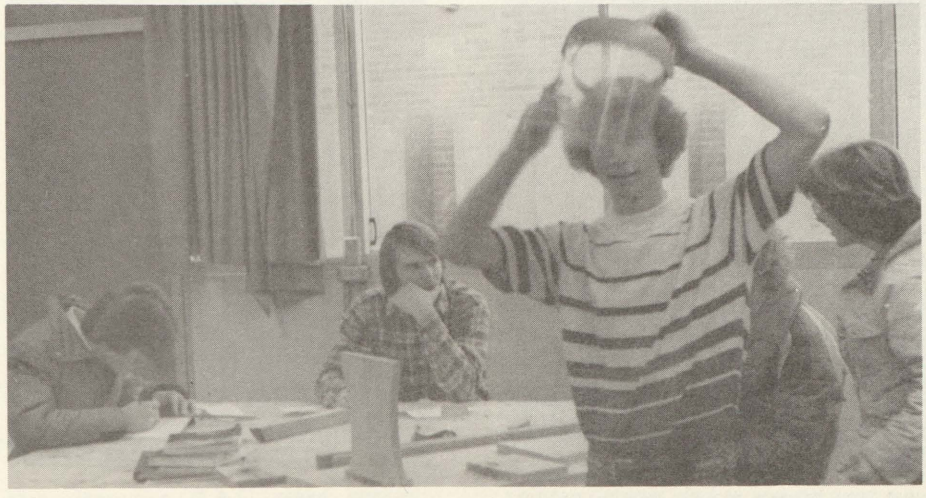
(A) Very carefully is how Kurt Princing works on his electronics project. (B) "It's nice that one of us is enthusiastic," thinks Scott Parker of Mark Boldt.



Mr. Lutzke helps Dave Schultz connect his electrodes.



"You do that pretty well," says Kevin Harvey to Lynn Spahr.



Hard work is done in woodshop, by Craig Boyd and company.

There has been a woodshop and electronics class at DMHS since 1961.

In woodshop students acquire the skills to design their own projects, such as: cabinets, tables, and spice racks. Among the skills learned are planning and constructing projects, and using such tools as the table saw, band saw, and the lathe. The students also learn techniques to finish the projects.

According to Mr. Lutzke, electronics teaches the different types of theories in electronics and putting these theories into action. They fix audio-visual equipment, the shop controls, and televisions. The students can make some money on their own by fixing the faculty's appliances.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR ACTIVE MINDS

Preparation for careers, culture, and physical education, are represented here as the varied programs offered at MacArthur are undertaken by students.

Math students, Mark Ebell and Jim Putz, were in the top 100 of the State, in the Michigan Math Competition. Jim Leibinger received outstanding achievement in the same competition.

The Career Opportunity Center is available on a limited basis to students in Saginaw Township who are interested in special experience in possible careers.

Co-Op is another program which offers students credit for working while taking a related class at MacArthur.

Honor English students have opportunities to attend cultural events as well as pursue the arts in their expanded English classes.

Latin Club is one of the more popular organizations at MacArthur. The activities are varied; the Latin Banquet, selling snow cones, canoe trip, slave auction, rank raising, pizza parties, tobbagoning, and sleigh rides are just a few of them.

Physical Education is a chance for a student to find his physical as well as mental capabilities. The class is divided into two sections, team and life. Team is where the students use their individual efforts in sports that will carry over to their later life.

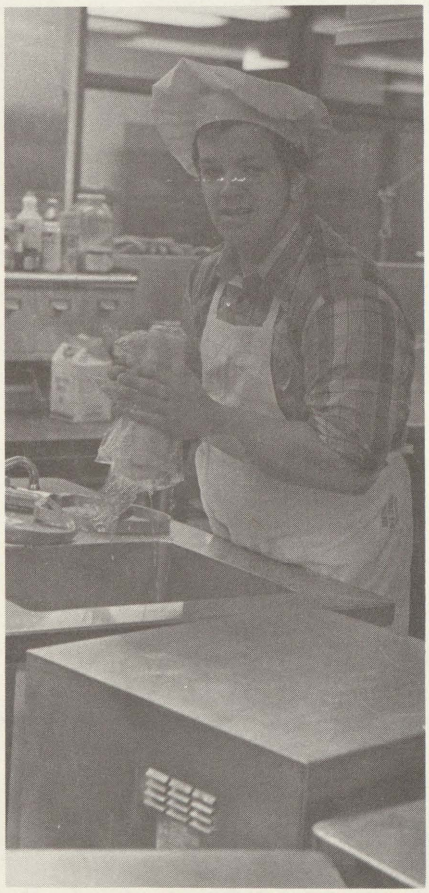
Fixing the equipment, as shown by Lloyd Woodall, is one of the requirements in the printing class at COC.

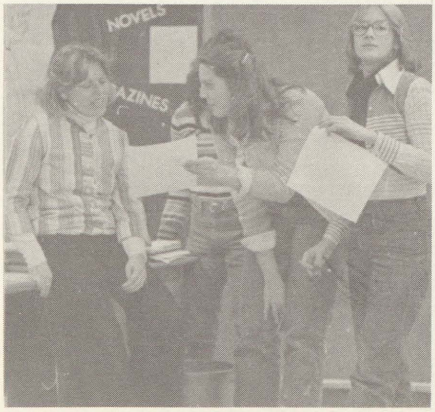


Al McMall proves that you can make dough by working at the COC.

Mark Ebell, James Leibinger, and James Putz received awards for the State Math Competition.

Latin Club members and guests went on a trip to the Midland tobboggan runs.

Team and Life P.E. are two of the Physical Education courses.



Mrs. Mazany's C.A.L. class shares original poetry.

Honors English classes viewed past cultures by visiting the Detroit Museum of Arts.

1979 has brought change to Saginaw Township. Some advancements include new businesses and services for the area.

Pizza Hut, The U.S. Post Office, Quad II, and Fashion Square Chevrolet were added along the prosperous Bay Road.

The Tittabawassee—State Bridge is now in the process of being torn down and reconstructed.

The State and Center stop light has been replaced with a green arrow correcting a once impossible left turn.

South Colony Place has been completed as Senior Citizen Apartments.

The Sports Illustrated Court Club is a new recreation area where raquetball playing is made available to the public.

These things have marked the change in Saginaw Township. But some things never change, for example the weather . . . MacArthur was closed several days due to snow fall and power failure.

The police millage was defeated in Saginaw Township during the winter, resulting in the loss of some officers from the police department.

1979 teens are talking about disco-dancing, raquetball and other things that have swept across our ever changing city.
